

Falcon Editions

Jonathan Steffen's CD of poetry St. Francis in the Slaughter-House And Other Poems is now available for purchase via www.falconeditions.com.

Written and recited by the author, this collection of thirty poems includes The Falcon to the Falconer, The Ginkgo and The Sycamore, I am the Wind that Stirs the Thoughts of Sails and Pietà as well as a number of previously unpublished titles. The CD is accompanied by a 32-page booklet containing the full text to all the poems.

St. Francis in the Slaughter-House And Other Poems is the first CD available from Falcon Editions. A CD of Jonathan's songs arranged by, and performed together with, classical guitarist Roland Gallery is currently in preparation and will be available later during 2006.

About the author

Jonathan Steffen was born in London in 1958 and read English at Cambridge, where he won the King's College James Prize and the Cambridge University T.R. Henn Prize, both for creative writing. On graduating, he received a Harper-Wood Travelling Studentship for English Poetry and Literature, awarded by St. John's College, Cambridge. In 1987 he was the beneficiary of a Hawthornden Fellowship for Creative Writing.

Jonathan's short stories, poems, book reviews, articles and translations have appeared in a wide range of anthologies and magazines, including The London Magazine, The Spectator, the New Statesman & Society, Signals, Firebird, BABEL, Outposts, Acumen, Orbis and Poem for the Day (Volume 1). He has been featured on BBC Radio 4's Poetry Please and has also published translations of literary and academic works from the German and the French.

Further information

For further information, please visit www.falconeditions.com or contact: Falcon Editions Ltd., Larchmont Office, Wych Hill Rise, Woking, Surrey GU22 0ES, UK
Email: info@falconeditions.com
Telephone: +44 1483 751379 (office) +44 7747 793248 (mobile).